About This Game

SURGE

SURGE is a 2.5D metroid-vania adventure platformer game.

You play as the brilliant Dr Lazarus who lost an arm and his memories. His new prosthetic the A.R.M., however, helps him fling & hook himself across the megalopolis of Brahma. With the assistance of your personal A.I. friend Galatea, find a way to stop Infinium's devastating effects on the human brain, retrieve your memories, fight the powerful Golems using your gadgets & upgrades — but hurry up before it's too late!

The screenshot displays a digital tabletop interface for a D&D 5e campaign. The central focus is on several tables related to a Minotaur encounter:

- The Approaches: A table with 6 rows, each with a number in a circle and a description of a clue or approach.

Roll	Custom	Output
1	1	Spots of dried blood lead towards the bar.
2	2	Deep grooves and scratches mar the walls.
3	3	The stub of a burnt-out torch lies on the ground.
4	4	Wings of torn cobweb flutter on the slight breeze.
5	5	Brownish-green mould covers one wall where water oozes down from above.
6	6	A faded chalk cross decorates one wall at
- Minor Features: A table with 5 rows, each with a number in a circle and a description of a feature.

Roll	Custom	Output
1	1	Deep gouges in the wall show where the minotaur has leered at the wall.
2	2	Bones and mouldering equipment cover the floor.
3	3	A loose stone or brick in the floor hides a small, hard-to-spot storage niche.
4	4	Jammed into small niches in the walls, skulls leer down into the chamber. Several skulls are cracked or smashed testimony to the minotaur's strength.
5	5	A puddle, fed by water oozing down from
- Minotaur Appearance: A table with 5 rows, each with a number in a circle and a description of the minotaur's appearance.

Roll	Custom	Output
1	1	Has a thick mane of red hair growing halfway down its back.
2	2	Has but one horn; only a patch of terribly scarred hide remains where the other once grew.
3	3	Is missing the tip of one horn; only a jagged stump remains.
4	4	Has partially healed burn marks on its legs and hips.
5	5	Is tall and bulky even considering the race's usual stature.
- Notable Features: A table with 4 rows, each with a number in a circle and a description of a notable feature.

Roll	Custom	Output
1	1	A small field of red spotted mushrooms and fungus fills a yawning side-cavern. The minotaur fertilizes his "garden" with his victims' broken remains.
2	2	An iron-shafted spear driven deeply into the rock pins the muddering corpse of a once-powerfully built human male upright against the wall.
3	3	A tapestry-depicting a fendishly complex maze decorates one wall.
4	4	A sinkhole pierces the lair's floor. Two hundred feet deep, the sinkhole
- Treasures: A table with 4 rows, each with a number in a circle and a description of a treasure.

Roll	Custom	Output
1	1	These knee-high black leather boots are in good repair.
2	2	Securely wrapped in oboian, and written in a beautiful flowing script, this book contains dozens of local recipes.
3	3	This pouch of spell components contains strange, exotic items suitable for low-level wizard spells. It hangs from a fragment of torn and bloody belt.
4	4	Missing the inlaid gems that once decorated its rim, this drinking goblet of tarnished silver was once much more
- Trinkets: A table with 5 rows, each with a number in a circle and a description of a trinket.

Roll	Custom	Output
1	1	Dried blood covers the back of this torn, shredded leather backpack.
2	2	Missing one leg this brass incense burner is also slightly squashed—probably from one mighty blow.
3	3	The fragments of a ripped and torn letter lie intermingled with the minotaur's other treasures.
4	4	The settings in this squashed iron brooch yet hold the cracked pieces of translucent red stones.
5	5	This bloodstained spellbook cover is

On the left, a 'Tables' sidebar lists these tables with search and refresh options. At the bottom, a dice roller shows a 20-sided die and other dice, and a map grid is visible.
